

Jesse M. Maule

18550 Prairie Street #11
Northridge, CA 91324
818-882-3026

Summary of Qualifications:

- Experience working as part of a creative team in the areas of advertising/fine arts/upper management
- Skilled at promoting products and ideas through written and visual presentation
- Ability to interpret client/customer ideas and needs

Education:

- Bachelors Degree in Fine Arts/The Art Institute, Dallas, Texas 1994
- Bachelors Degree in English/Galveston College, Galveston, Texas 1994

Experience:

- January 2006 – March 2006: Woodcraft Rangers (Columbia Middle School) Lead Art Teacher for after school program
- November 2005 - Currently: Began teaching private art lessons
- August 2003 - Currently: Co-own and operate The Pencil Palette, an illustration company
- 2003-currently: Freelance work for Pur-Sang Enterprises, a printing company
- October 2002-November 2002: Jeanine Colini Design Associates
With another artist, designed the “Edison Power Company” nationwide, inner-office spreadsheet
- December 2001: “Destroy All” Magazine
Designed and illustrated a new logo for the magazine
- April 1998: “Jumbo Comics” Published through Divum Enterprises

Related Experience:

- 1994: Won “City Appreciation” award in San Diego, CA for wall mural at the “Shea Learning Center”
- 1997: Won a government “Award of Recognition” for a collection of art in the Philippines